

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Senator Remmers, please, then.

SENATOR REMMERS: Mr. Speaker, I just only wanted to add that this applies only to insurance and not to banking, I believe this is the difference there.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Thank you. There are no other lights on. Senator Lynch, did you want to close at this time or are you...

SENATOR LYNCH: I could. Are we ready with the amendment? Mr. President, could I indulge on the body for one more minute until Senator Remmers and his staff add a word or two to Section 44-320, whatever it is, which I will offer as an amendment to an amendment, or Senator Remmers can.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Are you going to fill for awhile?

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, I could keep on talking until I think of something to say, but I know that that would be completely different from what normally happens on the floor, and I certainly wouldn't want to be inconsistent with the good taste and policy that existed here for years, and at the same time we are trying to improve the image of our body, so I will respectfully suggest I can move the amendment now and stop all that.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Senator Bernard-Stevens, is your light on? Would you care to speak?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Mr. President, members of the body, I don't need to speak on the bill. I was simply going to help Senator Lynch stall for a minute if he needed to, but if he is...are you ready at this time, Senator?

SENATOR HANNIBAL: I think we have an amendment approaching the desk.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I yield the time back to the Chair.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Amendment on the desk, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lynch would move to amend the bill. Senator, would it be appropriate for me to read, do you
